1955

The year ILI was first established

The International Law Institute – African Centre for Legal Excellence (ILI-ACLE) introduces its new range of Compact Courses – short professional programmes that run over the course of one day or two evening sessions.

20

Years ILI-ACLE has been in operation

In today's highly competitive and fast changing world, the ability to continuously improve and develop one's skills is critical for continued relevance and success.

With a well-established history well beyond its 20 years existence on the African continent, ILI-ACLE is affiliated to ILI-Washington with origins at the Georgetown University Law Center. Read more about ILI-ACLE at <http://iliacle.org/>
